

Michelle Barrows

References are available on request.

Academic Qualifications

Diploma in General nursing, Psychiatric, Community Health and Midwifery – Carinus Nursing College/UCT

Diploma in food and beverage management – ICS

Assessor – Assessment college

Moderator – Assessment college

Expertise

Programme development

Skills development and work place skills plan

Facilitation

Accreditation for training providers with SETA

Site visits and inspections

Moderation

Assessment

Training provider consultant

Management skills

Subject matter expertise

Medical

Hospitality industry

Food and beverage industry

Administration

SAQA and SETA related

Project management

Document development

Feuerstein instrumental enrichment

Work experience

Partner in Summative Solutions

Consultant to Service SETA – moderation and accreditation

Accents Consulting – programme development, project management, facilitation, assessment, moderation

Mike's Kitchen – project management of learnerships, learnership training material development

Troublesome tots – counselling, training moms with newborns, medical advice, overseas

Parklane clinic, Johannesburg - Sister in the neonatal intensive care unit

Greys Hospital, Durban - Sister in charge of neonatal Intensive care night duty

Post office Cape Town – Occupational health sister